

Sales Representative / Box Office Sales Sydney Symphony Orchestra, Sydney CBD

Do you like speaking to people?

Speak to existing Sydney Symphony customers about concerts.

Working at the Sydney Symphony Orchestra means you are part of an organisation that has presented music in Sydney and around the world for almost 90 years. We are always on tour with some of the greatest names in classical music, and present unique on-stage collaborations with performers from across the world of music in our home city.

You will be joining a small, committed, and friendly team where you will be supported with training and mentoring to help you reach your full potential.

Our priority is to support live music, our staff and musicians and our loyal customers who demonstrate their rock-solid support every day.

What you will be doing

Suggesting concerts to people. In this role as a Sales Representative, you will be learning outbound calling sales skills by speaking with our existing customers about renewing their tickets, talk to ticket holders about donations, and conduct service check ins with current subscribers. We never cold-call people who do not have a relationship with the Sydney Symphony.

You will be providing them with information about their concert choices, the range of season ticket options, and taking the opportunity to up-sell and cross-sell to help your team hit daily targets. It's also an opportunity to provide additional service to our current customers. You will process sales through our ticketing and customer systems.
